

Retirement Incomes May Fall Short for about 4 in 10 Early Millennials if Policymakers Ignore Social Security's Financing Gap

Percentage of adults unable to replace 75% of their preretirement earnings at age 70

■ Current Social Security benefits continue ■ Benefits cut 25%

